

Payam Angha International transportation company Ltd. is proud to announce; this company with over 25 years of experience in land, air, sea shipping in the form of carrier, forwarder, combined, traffic and small load and also warehousing, clearance and custom services, and also having some branches in Iran, Turkey and Europe by collaborating with EKOL co. (Turkish company), announces its new services in the field of International Trade.

Regarding the point that Payam Angha Ltd. has been in touch with all of the main building materials manufacturers of Iran for 25 years and also the company has serviced buying and transporting for some of the customers. The company has just determined to improve its market by adding some new services as consulting in case of what would you need for your project and what you had better buy, finding the goods on the market, buying procedures, exchanging and transporting by our technical experts. The new services are in ETC, EMC and ITS fields.

In addition, there are some advantages to the new services like as:

- ❖ The ability to compare the whole of the manufacturers and providers in Iran
- ❖ Well-Knowledge about local market and regulations and procedures
- ❖ Reducing the financial risk of customers
- ❖ Reducing the cost of buying goods
- ❖ Consulting about the strategy of transportation
- ❖ Owning some warehouse in Iran and Turkey that make transporting to Syria, Iraq and Lebanon easier
- ❖ Well-Knowledge about building materials, it includes steel profiles and mineral materials and etc.
- ❖ Technical experts fluent in Arabic, English and Turkish